Prom Guidelines

In order to ensure that Prom will be a memorable night for everyone involved, it is essential that everyone understands and adheres to the following guidelines:

1. Because Prom is a school-sponsored event, all PHS rules will apply. School rules apply to everyone in attendance, including guests from other schools. Please see the PHS handbook for specific rules.
2. Prom is for PHS students with Junior or Senior class status and their guests. Non-PHS Guests must be at least a freshman in high school but no older than twenty (20) years of age to attend Prom.
3. The consumption and/or possession of alcohol, tobacco, or drugs before, during, or after the Prom are strictly prohibited. Students suspected of violating this policy may be searched and/or required to take a breathalyzer test.

Prom Dress Guidelines (Let's keep it Classy PHS)

Low cut dresses, dresses with cut-outs at or below the bust line, and dresses with midriffs and waistlines showing are frowned upon. Sheer material may be used to cover exposed areas. Please do not choose a SHEER dress with minimal embellishments.

All dresses should be appropriate for a school sponsored event.

New this year: Footwear Expectations

All students need to keep shoes on his/her feet the entire time you are in the banquet hall. Bring slippers, Crocs, flip flops, etc. if you think you will not be able to stay in your "prom" shoes all night.
